YOUR WINE HOST

Collier Falls is a family-owned vineyard and winery in Healdsburg, California's beautiful Dry Creek Valley. We make limited quantities of hillside estate red wines from 20 acres of our own sustainably-farmed vineyards. Our very first vintage, a Collier Falls 1997 Zinfandel, earned 90 points in the Wine Spectator, the first in a long line of award-winning wines from Collier Falls. Each year we strive to grow outstanding fruit and make world-class wines here in Sonoma County. We believe the wines of Collier Falls express the true flavors of the grapes, and are exceptional examples from this wonderful winegrowing region.

Sustainability at Collier Falls involves the integrated management of land, water, vegetation, animals and insects. We seek exceptional quality in our fruit, and feel a responsibility to preserve our part of the ecosystem for future generations. We're proud of farming responsibly for over 25 years, and we're proud to acknowledge our official designation in 2019 for Certified California Sustainable Winegrowing. Our wines are found in the restaurants of legendary chefs like Gordon Ramsay, Wolfgang Puck, Emeril Lagasse, Charlie Palmer, and Thomas Keller.
