Highlights

Experience the unique culture of Papua New Guinea's Milne Bay people on a call to Alotau, and explore the region's stunning coral reefs, tropical rainforests, and WWII historical sites.

Balance your overnight discovery of Honiara with immersive adventures among waterfalls, coral reefs, and rainforests, and visit the haunting remnants and battlefields of WWII history.

Play on Vanuatu's acclaimed beaches – including the iconic Champagne Beach, revered for its effervescent "bubbles" – and swim in crystal-clear waters; channel Michener's "Tales of the South Pacific" during a call to idyllic Espiritu Santo.

Meet Your Host

Jad Davenport

National Geographic explorer, photographer, writer, and filmmaker Jad Davenport has spent the last three decades voyaging along the world's most remote coastlines and islands. Assignments have taken him to more than 160 countries and island groups, however, his favorite region is the legendary South Pacific.
