WINE HOST BIO

Fred Peterson, Founder

Founder Fred Peterson began his winegrowing career 45 years ago with a vineyard apprenticeship in Mendocino County. After graduating UC Davis, and managing other peoples’ vineyards and wineries, Fred moved to Dry Creek Valley in 1983 to plant his own vineyards, and Peterson Winery was established in 1987. The Peterson approach is to capture the essence of vintage and vineyard—a philosophy they call Zero Manipulation—using the most gentle, traditional winemaking practices possible to maximize the flavors, aromatics and texture of the wines. The evolution of Peterson wines and winemaking accelerated when Fred’s son Jamie became assistant winemaker in the summer of 2002. In 2006, after moving from the tiny red barn on Lytton Springs to Timber Crest Farms, Jamie was given the overall responsibilities as winemaker. As a winegrowing team, Fred and Jamie celebrate vintage differences and don’t tweak or homogenize the wine to obtain consistency of flavors, a common practice in mass-market wineries. For Fred and Jamie, Peterson Winery is all about the wines. But if you look a little deeper, you’ll see the heart and soul that goes into every bottle.
