WINE HOSTS BIO

Caryn Arrowood, Proprietor

Kyle and Layne Arrowood, Winemakers

Steve and Caryn Arrowood started making wine as Garagistes in 1991, sourcing fruit from Santa Barbara County to Napa and making upwards of 14 barrels a year with friends and family. After his career in aerospace, Steve's continued passion for winemaking led to creating a bonded winery in 2009. Montemar's Lompoc, CA tasting room opened in 2013 and the winery was built next door in time for the 2015 harvest. Sadly, Steve passed away in early 2020, but not without passing on his winemaking passion to his son, Kyle and wife Layne. Kyle, Layne and Caryn are dedicated to carrying on Steve's vision for the winery and his trademark high-quality, handcrafted small-lot production, which shows in Kyle's and Layne's wines receiving 97- and 95-point ratings.
