

UC Davis and Chancellor May's Inaugural Wine Cruise Discover Castles Along the Rhine

SS Elisabeth Sailing the Scenic Rhine Gorge

SS Elisabeth • 10 Days • Amsterdam to Basel • July 30 to August 8, 2027

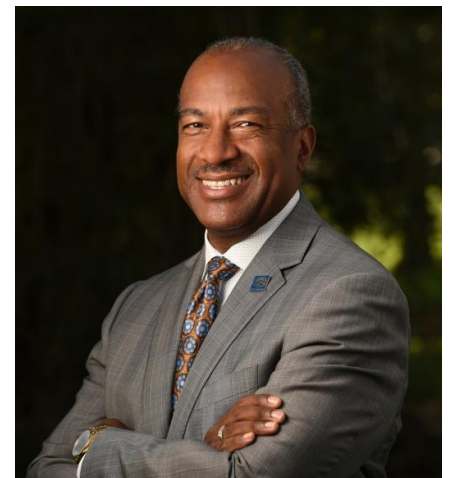

Discover the romance and timeless beauty of the legendary Rhine River on a journey designed to inspire. Enhance this exceptional itinerary with a rare opportunity to travel alongside Gary S. May, Chancellor of University of California, Davis, for an exclusive and enriching experience available only to a select group of travelers. The starting touch on top of the perfect journey: two nights in Amsterdam, complete with immersive tours led by local guides. Sail the majestic Rhine with Germany on one bank and France on the other as you explore the cultural crossroads of Europe. Discover the enchanting region of Alsace, where French and German traditions blend to create remarkable cuisine and a winemaking heritage dating back to Roman times. Marvel at hilltop castles that once served as formidable fortresses and step inside one during an exclusive Nights Out experience. Visit historic cities such as ancient Cologne and picturesque Strasbourg, stroll through the fairytale village of Rüdesheim, and savor exceptional wines in the very vineyards where the grapes are grown. Cheers to UC Davis and an amazing journey!
